MANN OUTLINES REPUBLICAN 1916 PLATFORM.

Protection for American industries, the upbuilding of the commerce of the country, the construction of a navy that will be sufficient to protect the country and guard our commerce and a guaranteed protection of life and property in Mexico will be four of the principal planks in the Republican platform at the next general election, according to Congressman James R. Mann, of Illinois, Republican leader in the House.

"The verdict of this election amounts to a vote of censure of the Democratic administration, not only for what it has done, but for what it has left undone," said Congressman Mann.

"The Democratic tariff bill has been a failure. Their treatment of commercial enterprise has had the result of throttling commerce to a large extent.

"The greatest need of the country is a revision of the tariff. We must afford protection to American industries. As a result of the war in Europe we now have the greatest opportunity that this or any other country ever had. But if we tell our people to go ahead and build factories and to make all manner of things, we must give them protection that will warrant them in investing their capital if we are to build up the industries of this country on a firm and stable basis. If we do not do this then the development of the United States will be something that few have imagined and then only dimly.

"A large navy is inevitable as a result of the European war. We must not only increase our navy, but we must look to our coast defenses and be prepared for any eventuality. The Republican party will stand pledged to this policy through and through. The greater navy must come unless there should be an agreement between all the nations whereby an international court might be established to which all disputes could be referred. But I think that is unlikely at the present time.

"The Progressive party is dead. Of course, the leaders will continue to be kickers, but the great mass of those who have been Progressives will line up with the Republicans on the protection idea and two years from now a protectionist will be elected president, because a majority of the people are protectionists and they will all be together again."

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

Some rich people put on lots of airs without blowing in any of their money.

The man who rides a hobby can't always get it to respond to the spur of the moment.

The only way you can properly size up some people is with the aid of the Bertillon system.

There might be more wisdom in the world if the wise man ever seemed to enjoy himself as much as the fool.

If you gain no wisdom from your mistakes you might as well not make them.

Satan pays good wages. But he can afford to, knowing that he will get his money back.

The reason an old man likes a snowstorm is because a young lady likes to have a boil.

As a general thing, if a woman knows her husband hasn't any money she isn't much worried over his whereabouts.

Probably having in mind President Wilson's roseate prophecy of great prosperity to follow the recent opening of the new federal reserve bank system, the New York Journal of Commerce remarks that "nothing is to be gained by exaggerating the prospect of returning prosperity or overestimating the agencies which are expected to bring it about."

Good morning! Have you shopped early?

TIME TO FORGET COTTON.

Of a return to prosperity to the south based on cotton there is no prospect.

That not for a long time may we hope for 15 or 12-cent cotton again is certain.

There is no prospect of an early ending of the war in Europe.

When the war ends, the buying ability of Europe will be exhausted or reduced to a minimum for years.

The sooner the south faces the fact that to rely on cotton as its main crop is to abandon itself to continuing hard times and poverty the better it will be for the southern people.

We can see no more prospect for cotton prosperity in 1918 or in 1920 than in 1915.

If we can not turn our energies to production of other wealth than cotton, we are an incapable and impotent people and we are doomed to poverty.

The time has come for every farmer to forget cotton and consider how he can make his farm pay in other ways.

Food-producing sections are rapidly acquiring wealth on account of the war.

We have a food-producing region; are we a food-producing people?

We have got to face the fact that there is now nothing in the cotton growing business.—Columbia State.

CITY BUSINESS.

Municipal charters are perhaps the weakest points in American government. Because they are often so slackly provided for, the public loses millions annually, and has fallen in many places into a feeling of helplessness and ignorance. It is not impossible, however, to look for a way out, and no one has done more practical work than Nathan Matthews, ex-mayor of Boston, in his "Municipal Charters." He attacks the problem chiefly from the point of view that the city should be first of all a business concern, and draws up two specimen charters calculated to safeguard the public in either a commission government or what he calls the "responsible executive type." The book is a practical handbook, the product of thirty years' experience, which every intelligent voter ought to read.

BONEYARD ALWAYS READY FOR BONE HEADS.

The Commercial Tribune of last week states it as a fact that the biggest judgment ever given in the State Courts was given in Judge Gorman's Common Pleas Court recently. The Glendale Cemetery Company recovered a judgment for $200,946.40 against Charles F. Heiney, who was the promoter of the Cemetery Company in the year 1909. As the living parties to the suit all appear to be bankrupt, the judgment will probably be like the parties in the cemetery, dead, and the big judgment can be buried with them. It is always a great satisfaction to have a place prepared for the burial of our troubles.

These Youngsters.

Willie, you're a naughty boy. You can just go to bed without any supper.

Well, mother, what about that medicine I've got to take after meals?

War and Business.

The dogs of war are loose in Germany, but we hear of no depression in the sausage trade.

A Kick Coming.

Memory is strange. Yes; the landlord remembers to lay in cheap summer coal, but he never remembers to have the boilers overhauled until after a cold snap.

Following a Star.

"Hitch your wagon to a star," said Emerson. But the members of the chorus continue to receive but $15 a week.

Undoubtedly a Tip.

Was it a genuine tip Dobbs gave you on the stock market?

I guess it was; it made me lose my balance.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache. Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills; Read about your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony. The kind that can be investigated. Mrs. John E. Burns, Maysville, Ky., says: "The statement I gave before when I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I know that this remedy is just as represented as it has been used by one of my relatives with satisfactory results. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Burns recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. HOW TO USE THE BIBLE.

1. Study to know what for and to whom each book of the Bible was written.
2. Set apart at least 15 minutes each day for studying it. Even this little will be grand in result.
3. Commit at least one verse to memory each day. In this way you soon will have your mind well stored with precious truth.
4. Believe every word of the Bible, and not merely that which may seem reasonable, and which you can fully understand.
5. Do not be satisfied with a mere reading of the Sacred Word, but endeavor to fathom its deeper meaning.
6. Study how to use the Bible for conversion and strengthening of others, and how to teach the great truths, especially if you occupy the responsible position of a teacher.
7. Learn to look on the Bible as a precious treasure and to regard it in the light in which the psalmist did, who considered it a "lamp to his feet and a light to his path," as "sweeter than honey and the honeycomb," and whose earnest purpose was to "hide it in his heart" that he might not sin.—Our Young Folks.

HOW IT FEELS TO UNDERGO TWILIGHT SLEEP.

In the January Woman's Home Companion appears an authoritative article about the new twilight sleep about which so much has been written by physicians and others. Following is a paragraph taken from the article in which a physician describes exactly how the treatment affects the patient:

"The patient is drowsy and sleeps lightly between her pains. When a pain occurs, she manifests her suffering to a greater or less degree, and again dozes. But consciousness is not entirely lost. She responds somewhat tardily to questions and usually obeys commands. Kroming lays great stress upon maintaining a condition of semi-unconsciousness, wherein the pains, though apparently perceived, are nevertheless immediately forgotten. The patient perceives a pain but does not appreciate it; in other words, she does not appreciate it. At any rate, on awakening, she has no recollection of anything that has occurred. The patient may complain that the treatment is not working and roundly abuse those in charge, yet half an hour after the birth have absolutely no recollection of her pains or of the coming of her baby."

THE ELEVATING INFLUENCE OF IRENE.
